
The Purse-uit of Holiness: Learning to Imitate the Master Designer

by Rhonda Rhea

About the Book

Every woman can relate to the endless search for the perfect purse. And Rhonda Rhea knows they are also on a constant lookout for the perfect spiritual life as well. Now, any woman who loves to laugh and who longs to know God in a closer, sweeter way need shop no further than The Purse-uit of Holiness.

With a sharp wit and keen insight, Rhea takes women into an in-depth but always entertaining study of 1 Peter 1:15-16. Whether they carry designer handbags or landfills on shoulder straps, women will love following Rhea heavenward in this hilarious and enlightening book.

Discussion Guide

1. Where does the "want to" to live holy come from? Where else do we look to inspire a desire to live right? How are those ways different from God's way?
2. Do you think it's relatively easy to start thinking that a life of holiness is just for your pastor or the leaders of the church? If so, why? What are some practical things we can do to make sure we're living on the right side of that comparison? How can we purse-severe?
3. Do you ever find yourself feeling like you're not accomplishing anything spiritually? Do you think setting reachable goals can change a person's pursuit of holiness? If you haven't set any goals do you think mapping them out would make a difference for you?

4. How would you compare and contrast our failures in living a life of holiness with the mercy of God? How should this mercy affect our pursuit?
5. Have you thought about how thoroughly the Father knows you? And how thoroughly He loves you? How does knowing those two things inspire you to live a holy life?
6. What does it mean to thirst truly for the Lord? Do you thirst on a regular basis? List some things that could keep us from thirsting for him. How do "living thirsty" and "living holy" compare and connect?
7. How does our own passion for holiness influence our families and friends? Can you think of someone who has been a positive influence on you? Do you think you might be a positive influence on someone else?
8. Have you ever seen people who seem to love God with their hearts and souls, but not with their minds? How does that compare with the lives of those who love the Lord with everything they've got?
9. Have you ever spent time contemplating the indescribable power of our God? When we ponder his power, what effect do you think that has on our trust in his ability to empower us to live holy?
10. Describe the life of a person who is taking control and deciding to live a holy life on her own. How does this differ from a Holy Spirit-controlled life?
11. How do you think trials and difficulties affect our pursuit of holiness? What kind of effect should they have? Why do you think there is such joy in a righteous and holy walk, even when circumstances are difficult?
12. Describe the connection between our salvation and our holiness. Where do we get a righteous standing before God? How does that influence our holy pursuit?

Author Bio

Rhonda Rhea has written numerous articles for HomeLife, Today's Christian Woman, Marriage Partnership, ParentLife, and many other publications. She can be heard on Focus on the Family's Weekend Magazine, and is the author of several books, including HIGH HEELS IN HIGH PLACES and THE PURSE-UIT OF HOLINESS. Rhonda and her husband, Richie, live in Missouri with their five children.

The Pursuit of Holiness: Learning to Imitate the Master Designer

by Rhonda Rhea

Publication Date: September 1, 2008

Genres: Christian

Paperback: 240 pages

Publisher: Revell

ISBN-10: 0800732537

ISBN-13: 9780800732530